Alsace

Alsace is a charming region known for its picturesque landscapes, rich culture, and deep historical roots. Its capital, Strasbourg, stands out for its stunning Notre-Dame Cathedral and the Petite France district, with cobbled streets and centuries-old half-timbered houses.

A highlight of the region is the Alsace Wine Route, a 170-kilometer journey through rolling vineyards and beautiful medieval villages like Riquewihr, Eguisheim, and Kaysersberg. Along the way, travelers can visit family-run wineries and taste the region's renowned white wines, including Riesling, Gewürztraminer, Pinot Gris, as well as Sylvaner, Muscat, and Pinot Blanc.

Alsace's unique blend of French and German heritage is reflected in its cuisine, architecture, and traditions. The Christmas markets of Strasbourg and Colmar are among Europe's most famous, drawing visitors with festive lights, crafts, and local treats. Throughout the year, the region hosts wine fairs, traditional dances, and music festivals, offering a lively cultural experience.

Throughout the year, Alsace hosts numerous events and festivals, such as wine fairs, traditional dances, and music festivals, making it a vibrant destination for travelers seeking both relaxation and cultural immersion. Whether you're exploring its historic cities, tasting local wines, or enjoying its lively festivals, Alsace offers an unforgettable experience.

Alsace celebrates wine

JUNE-JULY-AUGUST
THE WINE FESTIVALS

The highlight of the summer period, the wine festivals are the ideal opportunity to meet winegrowers and fall under the spell of the typical villages of the Alsace Wine Route. Wine festivals give pride of place to meetings and conviviality! In the streets and courtyards, tables are set up to taste gastronomic specialties while the winegrowers carry out the tastings. Golden or cherry-colored, floral or fruity aromas, Alsace wines are offered to you with delicacy. Between sharing and generosity, wine festivals are the ideal time to get together with family or friends in a festive and friendly atmosphere. Wine festivals also honor traditions and folklore. Traditional music and dances punctuate the festival and invade the picturesque streets. The opportunity to admire the waltz of traditional costumes and headdresses which twirl according to the agile steps of the dancers. Let yourself be drawn into a dance to the rhythm of folk orchestras!

JULY
ALSACE WINE FAIR

An extraordinary musical and wine event. Every year in Colmar, it is a unique concept that delights epicureans who combine the pleasure of good wines and that of good music! More than 350 exhibitors and winegrowers invite you to discover their products in a friendly and festive atmosphere. An exceptional showcase for Alsace wines, the Alsace Wine Fair is the ideal opportunity to refine your knowledge and indulge in some oenological pleasures! As you wander through the halls, let yourself be surprised by the numerous activities: dance shows, culinary shows, theme evenings, conferences, children's activities. On the concert side, the Alsace Wine Fair has become an essential stop on summer tours. The big names come one after the other through the editions to ignite an ever-increasing audience. Charles Aznavour and Johnny Hallyday, but also Motörhead, Lenny Kravitz, Placebo, David Guetta and even M set the scene on fire and made the capital of Alsace wines dance!

OCTOBER
WINE HARVEST FESTIVALS

As soon as autumn is upon us, the villages along the Alsatian Wine Route start to celebrate the grape harvest with a whole series of friendly festive events. An ideal opportunity to discover wine-growing traditions that go back to centuries and taste the vin nouveau, accompanied by walnuts, bacon and country bread or other traditional dishes.

OCTOBER
THE FASCINATING WEEKEND

From North to South, the Alsace Wine Route will be celebrated with more than 100 events for the enjoyment of all. Segway tours in the vineyards, blind tastings, immersion in Alsatian tales and legends: so many unique and unusual activities to enjoy the wonders offered by this exclusive route during The Fascinating Vineyards & Discovery Weekend.

Burgundy

Renowned for its rich history and world-class wines, Burgundy offers an unparalleled experience for wine enthusiasts.

Wine tourism in Burgundy is more than just tasting; it's a journey through terroir, history, and gastronomy. From the crisp whites of Chablis to the robust reds of Côte de Nuits, Burgundy offers a diverse palette of wines. Each appellation has its unique characteristics, shaped by the region's diverse soils, climate, and grape varieties. Wine lovers can embark on a tasting adventure, exploring the nuances of Pinot Noir and Chardonnay, and discovering lesser-known appellations.

One of Burgundy's most distinctive features is its "Climats," the unique parcels of land that produce its wines. In 2015, these Climats were inscribed on UNESCO's World Heritage List, recognizing their exceptional cultural landscape. Visitors can explore these historic vineyards, learning about the traditional methods of winemaking and the profound connection between the land and the wine.

No visit to Burgundy is complete without indulging in the region's renowned gastronomy. Many wineries offer food pairings, allowing visitors to experience the full range of flavors.

While wine is the star of the show, Burgundy offers much more. Visitors can explore charming medieval towns, such as Beaune and Dijon, and admire the region's stunning architecture.

A Day in the Burgundy Wine County

Côte de Nuits - Côte de Beaune -
Côte Chalonnaise - Chablis

In every wine tasting, Burgundy presents its visitors with incredible Chardonnay and Pinot Noir, two classic French varieties which reach their highest expression in Chablis, Côte de Nuits and Côte de Beaune. Guided by a Burgundy specialist and wine expert, you'll journey through the region to explore its most prestigious estates, legendary vineyards, exceptional dining spots, and remarkable historical heritage. A must-see on any successful wine tour is the Route des Grands Crus, the "Champs-Élysées" of Burgundy, stretching from the Côte de Nuits to the Côte de Beaune and listed as a UNESCO World Heritage site.

For the more curious travellers, or those wishing to broaden their discovery of the region, additional gems await: Chablis with its uniquely distinctive wines, the enchanting vineyards of the Côte Chalonnaise between the Abbey of Cluny and the Roche de Solutré, and the Beaujolais with its postcard-perfect landscapes and delightful Gamay wines.

A day Exploring Burgundy Vineyards

suggestions of itineraries

ONE DAY IN COTE DE NUITS

The Côte de Nuits, home to 73% of Burgundy's Grand Cru vineyards, is renowned for its exceptional Pinot Noir. This grape variety thrives in the region's unique terroir, producing a diverse range of flavors and styles. Explore prestigious villages like Gevrey-Chambertin, Vosne-Romanée, and Nuits-St-Georges, and discover the history of renowned appellations like Chambertin Clos de Bèze, Clos des Lambrays, Clos de Vougeot, Romanée-Conti, and Musigny. Burgundy's terroir and climate are ideal for Pinot Noir, allowing the grape to express subtle variations in each vineyard. The wines offer a wide range of aromas, from fresh berries to cooked fruit, spices, and even animal notes. Pinot Noir produces rounded wines with delicate tannins and varying acidity.

ONE DAY IN COTE DE BEAUNE

The Côte de Beaune, renowned for both Chardonnay and Pinot Noir, offers exceptional white wines like Corton-Charlemagne, Montrachet, and Meursault, as well as red wines such as Corton, Pommard, and Volnay. Chardonnay thrives on clayey marly limestone soils, producing sophisticated, elegant wines with a broad, full-bodied palate. The Côte de Beaune produces Chardonnays with a vibrant gold color, intense aromas of white-fleshed fruit, floral notes, creaminess, and oak. These wines are ample, smooth, and powerful, with the Grand Crus offering unparalleled aromatic intensity and length.

ONE DAY IN CHABLIS

The Chablis region is renowned for its unique terroir. This has given rise to a diverse range of wines, from the village appellations to the prestigious Grand Cru created from a single grape variety: Chardonnay. Chablis wines are characterized by their dry, fresh taste with citrus and floral notes. The Grand Cru offers a perfect balance of liveliness, dryness, and acidity, while the Premier Cru wines showcase a variety of aromas. Even the village wines and Petit Chablis exhibit a distinct character with their freshness and aromatic richness. As you travel through Chablis and its vineyards, you will discover the exceptional lands of Chablis and the production of wine (origin, climate, exposure, grape varieties, methods, etc.).

WATER ACTIVITIES

What could be better than an activity in the water to help you feel fully connected to the Loire? River cruises, traditional boat trips, canoeing, fishing, water sports... there are so many great opportunities to observe the flora and fauna of the Loire. Foodies will be tempted to take a break in one of the open-air cafes, while fans of swimming can cool off in one of the water parks or in the great outdoors, on the banks of the Cher!

BY BIKE

Cycling is an excellent way to discover the Loire Valley, in communion with nature, enjoying the peace and quiet... There's a total of 5,000 kilometres of cycle routes to be enjoyed in total freedom, just you and your bike. As for the logistics side of things, no need to stress! Everything has been carefully thought out to make your life easier, with the "Accueil Velo" label. You can even take your bike on the Loire à Vélo train...

FRENCH COOKING CLASS

From the "aperitif" to the "desserts", our private French chef will teach you how to prepare freshwater fish, to roast game meat, to bake a tarte tatin or to fix a French aperitif... Each class is followed by a tasting: an "aperitif", a "café gourmand" or a 3 course meal served with the best wines of the property.

BEAUTIFUL GARDENS

A world where time stands still, captivating smells, soft colours and an abundance of flowers... Welcome to the parks and gardens of the Loire Valley! Discover the spectacular gardens of the Loire Châteaux, the epitome of French refinement, such as those of Chambord and Villandry with its stunning kitchen garden. If you prefer a more intimate setting, head to the Gardens of Roquelin or the fabulous English garden of Le Plessis Sasnières.

Loire Valley celebrates wine

VITILLOIRE, TOURS
MAY

With nearly 160 exhibitors, winegrowers and food artisans, Vitiloire is the unmissable event in the Centre-Val de Loire region for Loire Valley wines. It's also an opportunity to discover the latest culinary trends. The principle is simple: you buy your tasting glass (€6) and then wander through the stands, tasting book in hand to note the vintages that appeal to you. At the end of the journey, you will be able to stock your cellar by carefully controlling your purchases. Alongside the tastings, the gourmet village will offer good products from Loire gastronomy, and should be a great success like every year

GRANDES TABLEES DE SAUMUR
AUGUST

It is the ultimate convivial event! At the beginning of August, the Place de la République, opposite the Saumur Town Hall, is transformed into a real open-air restaurant with its famous large tables with red and white gingham tablecloths. We come there to share an authentic moment, discover local flavors and taste the famous "Cuvées des cent vigneron"! Winegrowers invite participants to taste several vintages of the Cuvée des 100* vigneron. Four vintages are to be tasted, in particular that of the year and a mystery vintage! The opportunity to discover or rediscover Saumur-Champigny and the work of the appellation's winegrowers!

LES ECHAPPEES EN LOIRE
AUGUST - SEPTEMBER

Les Echappées en Loire is the very definition of slow tourism associated with the discovery of Loire wines. These are walks and fun activities around the men and women who shape Loire Wines. It's an initiatory journey to discover the richness of Loire Wines. Les Échappées en Loire is the unmissable event for wine tourism in the heart of the Loire vineyards. For 20 years, the winegrowers of the Loire have been offering you a weekend of relaxation, conviviality and taste emotions. This is a unique opportunity to discover the most beautiful wine-growing regions, with family, friends or alone, in an area listed as a UNESCO World Heritage Site.

FESTIVINI, WINE CULTURE FESTIVAL
JUNE - SEPTEMBER

Created in 2001, the festival has become in a few years one of the most anticipated events in the region for wine lovers. It attracts visitors from all over the world who come to taste the local wines, discover the cultural richness of the region and meet passionate winegrowers. From June to September, participants have the opportunity to participate in many activities organized in different wineries and towns in the region.

In addition, Festivini also highlights the traditions and gastronomy of the region. Participants can taste local culinary specialties and discover local products.

Loire Valley & Beyond

THE MONT SAINT MICHEL

Less than 3 hours from the Loire Valley is one of the most beautiful sites in France. Set in a mesmerizing bay shared by Normandy and Brittany, the mount draws the eye from a great distance. A magical island topped by a gravity-defying abbey, the Mont-Saint-Michel and its Bay count among France's most stunning sights. For centuries one of Europe's major pilgrimage destinations, this holy island is now a UNESCO World Heritage Site, as is its breathtaking bay.

NORMANDY, AND THE LANDING BEACHES

The landing beaches in Normandy are just a 3 hours drive from the Loire Valley. Visiting the D-Day beaches is a thing that every people should do once a life! It's a very emotional day especially for American, Canadian and British people who are coming here to pay homage to the brave young men who gave their lives in the name of freedom... 5 beaches were chosen by the Allies and divided up by country. American paratroopers landed Utah beach and Omaha beach while Canadian landed Juno Beach and British Gold beach and Sword beach.

A JOURNEY TO NANTES

At the western end of the Loire Valley is the city of Nantes. From the Château des ducs de Bretagne to Passage Pommeraye, and from the Musée d'Arts to the Galerie des Machines, Nantes reveals its historical, architectural and artistic heritage through a public collection of more than 100 artworks...

Nantes both surprises and enchants visitors, when nature rubs shoulders with the urban, the result is art that excites the imagination. The painted path leads pedestrians and cyclists to lively places all throughout town.

Here the air is fragrant in early July when the lavender is in full bloom. The fields undulate in waves of purple and blue as far as the eye can see, to the delight of photographers. This pleasant circuit winds along roads flooded with lavender and takes you from village to village to meet the emblematic landscapes of Provence.

CALANQUES OF MARSEILLE

The cliffs of the Calanques are a natural wonder nestled between Marseille and Cassis. This unique and breathtaking scenery is an absolute must-see in Marseille! With pebble and fine sandy beaches, and miniature fjords with turquoise waters, this biodiverse jewel looks just like a postcard! It is the perfect location to sunbathe, explore the seabed, or try yourself at some water sports such as kayaking.

LES BAUX-DE-PROVENCE

Perched atop a rugged hilltop, the village offers a captivating blend of history, art, and natural beauty. This ancient fortified settlement, dating back to Roman times, has been shaped by centuries of human presence. Its narrow, winding streets and stone houses create a medieval atmosphere. Les Baux is renowned for its Carrières de Lumières, an immersive art experience where light projections transform the former stone quarries into a breathtaking canvas. The village is also home to the Château des Baux, a majestic fortress that offers panoramic views of the surrounding countryside.

GORDES AND THE LUBERON

Gordes: A Provençal Gem! Perched high on a hilltop in the Luberon region of Provence, Gordes is one of France's most picturesque villages. Its honey-colored stone houses and winding streets create a stunning sight, and the village has been featured in numerous films and television shows. Visitors can explore the village's ancient castle, wander through the local art galleries, or simply relax and enjoy the breathtaking views of the surrounding countryside.

YACHT CRUISE IN THE BAY OF CANNES AND MONACO

Embark on a journey on an exclusive private boat tour along the French Riviera, spanning from Monaco to Saint-Tropez. Cruise along the azure waters, soaking in panoramic views. Discover the beautiful seashores, enchanting bays, picturesque coves and fishing villages. Enjoy dolphin and whale watching adventures. Feel the thrill of a sport fishing trip. Get romantic on our champagne sunset cruises.

HELICOPTER FLIGHT OVER THE FRENCH RIVIERA

Soar above the stunning French Riviera on a thrilling helicopter tour. Our helicopter tours offer a unique perspective of the Côte d'Azur, allowing you to admire iconic landmarks like Cannes, Nice, and Monaco from the sky. Glide over crystal-clear waters, lush forests, and charming villages. Whether you're a seasoned traveler or a first-time visitor, this unforgettable adventure is sure to leave you in awe.

Rhône Valley

From Lyon to Avignon, Discover the Rhône Valley : A Wine Lover's Guide

Embark on a sensory journey through the heart of France and discover the Rhône Valley, a region renowned for its diverse terroirs and exceptional wines. Stretching between the bustling city of Lyon and the historic city of Avignon, this picturesque valley offers a captivating blend of ancient traditions and modern winemaking.

Northern Rhône: Elegance and Power

- Côte-Rôtie: Perched on steep, granite slopes, Côte-Rôtie is home to some of the most powerful and complex wines in the world. Syrah reigns supreme in this appellation, producing wines with deep color, intense aromas of black fruits, and a mineral undertone.
- Condrieu: A small appellation dedicated to Viognier, Condrieu produces elegant and aromatic white wines with notes of peach, apricot, and white flowers. The wines often exhibit a floral character and a touch of minerality.
- Hermitage: Renowned for its steep slopes and granitic soils, Hermitage produces full-bodied Syrah wines with incredible aging potential. These wines are characterized by their complexity, concentration, and ability to evolve over time.

Southern Rhône: Sun-Kissed and Full-Bodied

- Châteauneuf-du-Pape: A legendary appellation known for its complex blends of Grenache, Syrah, Mourvèdre, and other local varieties. Châteauneuf-du-Pape wines offer a wide range of styles, from elegant and perfumed to powerful and structured.
- Gigondas and Vacqueyras: These neighboring appellations produce full-bodied wines dominated by Grenache. Gigondas wines tend to be more structured and tannic, while Vacqueyras offers a more approachable and fruit-forward style.
- Côtes du Rhône: This vast appellation encompasses a wide variety of terroirs and produces a diverse range of wines. From light and fruity to full-bodied and complex, there is a Côtes du Rhône to suit every palate.

A Day in the Rhône Valley

suggestions of itineraries

CONDRIEU,
CÔTE ROTIE, ST JOSEPH

A trip for fans of Roussanne, Viognier, Marsanne, and Syrah! These grape varieties are elevated on their native grounds by the three most popular appellations in the northern Rhône Valley.

Pick up at your hotel in Lyon by an English-Speaking driver-guide. The birthplace of the AOP Côte-rôtie, the village of Ampuis, is where your wine adventure will begin. You will come upon one of France's oldest vineyards and discover the origin of this remarkable wine during a visit and tasting of five wines at an estate. This is a very rich and diverse site for excellent exposure of syrah.

Lunch in a restaurant or in a winery (to be paid on site).

You'll travel south to the Condrieu vineyard. You will enter a nearby estate and discover that a wine's uniqueness is a result of its terroir, grape variety, and human touch. You will be able to appreciate these excellent wines' full aromatic richness. A little further south in the Saint-Joseph appellation, you will taste a slightly more rustic wine with spice notes. The three largest appellations in our region, Saint-Joseph, Condrieu, and Côte-Rôtie, will devastate your palate! Drop off at your hotel in Lyon.

HERMITAGE,
CORNAS & SAINT JOSEPH

South of the northern Rhône Valley has a wide variety of soils and wines. You have the choice between a fruity Crozes-Hermitage, a spicy Cornas or an elegant and structured Hermitage.

Pick up at your hotel in Lyon by an English-Speaking driver-guide. Take the road towards the legendary Hermitage wine. Cultivated on the left bank of the Rhône on a very specific terroir and in a warm climate, discover a wine with aromas of red fruits and flowers. Head to the Hermitage hill to enjoy a magnificent view of the vineyards and Rhône. Your guide will tell you the history of this legendary wine. You will then be able to taste 5 to 6 wines from the Rhône valley in a local estate.

Lunch in a restaurant or in a winery (to be paid on site).

Cross the Rhône to discover other prestigious appellations, Cornas, Saint-Joseph and Saint-Péray. Taste these wines in a family wine estate. End your discovery at an estate in Crozes Hermitage where you will taste a delicious and fruity wine. Drop off at your hotel in Lyon.

CHÂTEAUNEUF DU PAPE

The Southern Rhône Valley vineyard is vast, spanning approximately 70,000 hectares. Discover Châteauneuf-du-Pape, Gigondas, and Vacqueyras.

Pick up at your hotel in Avignon or Aix en Provence. Explore Châteauneuf-du-Pape vineyard. Multiple grape varieties flourish in this Mediterranean climate, contributing to the incredible complexity of these exceptional wines. Visit a beautiful estate to savor this marvelous nectar with its aromas of ripe fruits, spices, and garrigue. White Châteauneuf-du-Pape offers delightful notes of white flowers and stone fruits.

Enjoy lunch at a carefully selected restaurant. (to be paid on site).

Encounter the robust Gigondas. Nestled against the mountains, this terroir is as visually stunning as it is delicious. Grenache Noir dominates, producing fruity wines with powerful tannins. Tasting at a local estate. Visit the appellation of Vacqueyras. At the foot of the Dentelles de Montmirail, on a terroir of rolled pebbles, complex and concentrated wines are produced. Taste them in a charming cellar. Drop off at your hotel in Avignon or Aix en Provence.

FROM € 425/PERSON*

INCLUDED IN THE PRICE:

- Private transportation for the day with an English-Speaking driver-guide. 2 to 3 Visits to wine estates and wine cellars
- Tastings of at least 5 wines in each estate.

* Starting price per person based on two persons.

* Itinerary and winery selection can be modified according to availability. Additional costs may apply on Sunday, Bank Holiday.

Discover Avignon, the papal city and its legendary wines

DAY 1: CHÂTEAUNEUF-DU-PAPE, GIGONDAS, VACQUEYRAS

The Southern Rhône Valley vineyard is vast, spanning approximately 70,000 hectares. Discover three world-renowned AOCs: Châteauneuf-du-Pape, Gigondas, and Vacqueyras.

Your driver/guide will pick you up at your hotel in Avignon. First, we'll explore the Châteauneuf-du-Pape vineyard. The vines thrive on this unique terroir of rolled pebbles, bathed in sunshine and caressed by the wind. Visit a beautiful estate to savor this marvelous nectar with its aromas of ripe fruits and spices. White Châteauneuf-du-Pape offers delightful notes of white flowers and stone fruits. Enjoy a delicious lunch at a carefully selected restaurant (not included)

In the afternoon, encounter the robust Gigondas. Nestled against the mountains, this terroir is as visually stunning as it is delicious. Grenache Noir dominates, producing fruity wines with powerful tannins and coffee aromas. These are wines made for aging! Before coming back to Avignon, visit the neighboring appellation of Vacqueyras. At the foot of the Dentelles de Montmirail, on a terroir of rolled pebbles, complex and concentrated wines are produced.

Diner at leisure, night at Le Cloitre St Louis (4*) a 16th century building combining history and modernity, ideally located in the heart of Avignon.

DAY 2: LIRAC, TAVEL AND AVIGNON, THE CITY OF THE POPES

Start your 2nd day with the visit of Lirac & Tavel. These communes are rich in heritage and southern treasures, which you will be delighted to discover today. But did you know that the fame of these places is primarily linked to the wines produced on these terroirs? Indeed, Lirac covers several appellations that you will have the opportunity to taste, and Tavel is recognized as the "1st Rosé of France". Your guide will take you to discover the secrets of making this famous rosé at local wineries.

Returning to Avignon, you will have lunch at a local restaurant selected by us (not included).

The afternoon will be punctuated by a visit to the city of Popes, including the Palace of the Popes, built in the 14th century and a UNESCO World Heritage Site. It is the largest Gothic palace in the world! You will stroll across the Avignon bridge before wandering through the charming medieval streets of the city. Drop off in Avignon train station.

The atmosphere is lively and convivial, making it a perfect occasion to experience the rich flavors and traditions of the region. Whether you're a food connoisseur or simply looking for a festive outing, the Taulejades is a must-visit event.

Must Do & See in Rhône Valley

LE VIEUX LYON

Vieux-Lyon is Lyon's Old Town, and it's one of the largest Renaissance areas in all of Europe. It is located on a narrow stretch of land between the Fourbière Hill and the Saône River, which constrained Old Lyon to grow vertically.

Between the 15th and 17th centuries, Lyon was home to a thriving silk industry, and the city was full of wealthy people. You can see the city's wealth when you visit Vieux-Lyon, with its exquisite old houses in the Italian and French Renaissance styles.

LUMIÈRE MUSEUM IN LYON

If you only have time to visit one museum in Lyon, head to the Musée Lumière in the 8th district. Lyon was the birthplace of cinema thanks to the genius of the Lumière Brothers.

After visiting the museum, which is located in Antoine Lumière's house, head to the Hangar du Premier Film, where the first film La Sortie des Usines Lumière (Leaving the Lumière Factories) was shot in 1895.

LYON LOCAL FOOD

France is known for its delicious food, so when people say that Lyon is the best place in the country to eat, then you know that the cuisine must be really good! Lyon is France's gastronomical capital. It's where young chefs learn their trade, and you can be the lucky recipient of all this experimentation.

Some must-try specialties include quenelles (fish dumplings), saucisson brioché (sausage in brioche), and the famous tarte aux pralines. The bouchons lyonnais, traditional restaurants, are the perfect place to experience these local flavors.

LE PONT D'AVIGNON

As the famous French song goes... "on y danse, on y danse"... But there's so much more to discover! The world-famous Pont d'Avignon, or Pont Saint-Bénézet, is often the starting point for exploring the city's historic centre. Although today it no longer joins the two banks of the Rhône, the bridge offers a pretty view of the city and the Rocher des Doms. A great chance to snap some photos of the Popes' Palace before venturing into the old town!

THE POPES' PALACE

It's impossible to talk about Avignon without mentioning the celebrated Popes' Palace, listed as UNESCO World Heritage site. Given the Palace's colossal size, looming over the town, it's perhaps no surprise that this is the biggest gothic palace in the world. Definitely a must-see! Once inside the Palace, choose between a themed guided tour or freely wander around, accompanied by a digital tablet so you don't miss anything! From the Pope's private apartments to the frescos painted by the artist Matteo Giovannetti, the Popes' Palace is an immense playground for lovers of architecture and history.

CITÉ DU CHOCOLAT VALRHONA

Death by chocolate! On the main road in Tain l'Hermitage, the Cité du Chocolat is a chocoholic's dream come true. This vast complex run by famous chocolatier Valrhona, one of the world's leading chocolate manufacturers, takes you through each stage of the production process thanks to extremely well-thought-out interactive displays, workshops and hands-on exhibits. Of course, the supersized adjoining boutique is a treasure trove of chocolate goodies. And yes, it includes tastings.
